Heritage Talk: The history of women's football (soccer) in Australia, Queensland and Brisbane

10.00am - 11.00am, Wednesday 13 March 2019

FREE EVENT

Ten thousand people watched two women's teams play the world's most popular game in Brisbane in 1921. In the time since some of the country's best and most important female players have emerged out of our fair city.

Heritage Talks are free programs run on the second Wednesday of each month.
